

Topics

August
2019

Issuance of the Air China Orico Mastercard®, a co-branded credit card in conjunction with Air China Limited

On September 29, Orico began seeking card members for the Air China Orico Mastercard® upon having reached agreement on its issuance in conjunction with Air China Limited. The card's PhoenixMiles program aligns with needs of frequent business and leisure travelers particularly because cardholders who accrue points when shopping are able to redeem those points for airline seating upgrades and award tickets.

September
2019

Alipay and WeChat Pay payment options adopted by Keisei Electric Railway Group

Orico has started handling Alipay and WeChat Pay electronic payment services for Chinese visitors to Japan, available through ticket sales counters of Keisei Skyliner operated by Keisei Electric Railway Co., Ltd. and Expressway Bus (excluding the Osaki-Narita route) operated by Keisei Bus Co., Ltd. as of September 2019 and February 2020, respectively.

October
2019

New partnership involving school expense support plans with Keio University

In partnership with Keio University, Orico has started offering tuition expense support plans whereby it makes upfront payments of tuition fees and other such costs on behalf of guardians who then repay the borrowings through monthly installments.

School expense support plan partner institutions and plan subscribers

Partner institutions	Over 600 universities
	Over 1,500 vocational schools
Plan subscribers	Over 70,000 people (as of March 31, 2020)

December
2019

Capital and business alliance with TimeTree, Inc.

Orico has invested in TimeTree, Inc. which offers its TimeTree calendar sharing application, mainly enlisting the Orico Digital Fund. We will carry out various studies looking toward collaborative enterprises facilitated by this capital and business alliance, such that include developing promotions drawing on the platform of TimeTree, Inc., utilizing the platform as a communication channel for reaching Orico's existing users, and jointly developing financial services for TimeTree users.

February
2020

Launch of Jetstar Credit Card

Orico has started issuing the Jetstar Credit Card in partnership with Jetstar Airways Pty Limited of Australia. The card offers exceptional value to cardholders who turn to Jetstar for leisure and business travel, particularly given that the card offers cardholders a one-year trial period during which they are eligible for benefits under the Club Jetstar fee-based membership program such as airline tickets at lower than normal prices.

